

SEVENTEEN ARE DEAD 5 INJURED TOLL OF MISSISSIPPI STORM

Property Damage Estimated at Nearly Half Million

(By The Associated Press) MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 16.—Eighteen dead and 45 injured in property damage estimated between $300,000 and $400,000 made up the known toll tonight of a tornado which swept several delta counties in northern Mississippi last night, demolished one village—Savage—and a trail of property damage led dead and maimed in a dozen towns and farming settlements. Several hundreds are homeless.

Of the known dead, nine lost their lives when the storm battered the remnants of the town of Savage, damaged two months ago by a tornado—into bits and buried half a dozen dwellings in Cold Water river.

F. C. Maybray, A. G. Maybray, wife and John C. Kerr, a merchant are among those killed. Five negroes also were killed at Savage, six others in their lives when their cabins were wrecked near Lambert and a negro child and a negro woman were killed at Walnut Lake. William Pruitt, a farmer, was dead in bed at Walnut Lake, his death being attributed to heart failure incident to the excitement of the storm.

Of the injured about fifteen are reported seriously hurt. A list of injured included: Mrs. Velma Rich, Savage; Conlon Critch, Lambert; Mrs. Admie May Roland, Walnut Lake; arm crushed. Charles Kidd and wife, Savage. Mrs. Lois Chambers, Robert H. Kirby and H. L. Cockran, all of Savage.

Ten of the negroes injured are seriously hurt. The storm, a whirling wind which swept in from the southwest and in its rush northeast tore paths thru the towns of Olive Branch, Holly Springs, Sardis, Hernando and Phillip, all leveling the village of Savage and wrecking a dozen or more farming settlements and a mass of lumbered wreckage; at Sardis a dozen buildings were wrecked and the front of a hotel was smashed.

Holly Springs the McDermott hotel and the Frisco railroad station were damaged, half a dozen buildings were wrecked at Hernando and at Walnut Lake the storm took its heaviest toll on the station of C. C. Cannon where early a score of cabins were swept from their foundations and a plantation dwelling was damaged.

BLIZZARD IS NOW HEADING TOWARD THE NORTHEAST

Rising Temperatures Follow Snow in Middle West

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Ill., March 16.—The blizzard which has raged over the central west for the past week tonight relaxed its grip and was moving rapidly northeastward centering over Nova Scotia. As rising temperatures followed snow in the west heavy rains east of the Mississippi River and winds of cyclonic force over most second disturbance was reported of the northeastern states a Alaska.

The second disturbance was reported centered over the north Rocky Mountain region and northern plains states while decided drops in temperature were reported from the Mississippi Valley eastward to the Appalachians.

With telephone and telegraphic conditions gradually returning to normal in the middle west the toll of the storm which swept several Delta counties in Northern Mississippi last night was reported as eighteen dead and 100 injured and property loss estimated at $300,000.

Three deaths in Omaha and Council Bluffs, Iowa, are attributed to the storm while a second blizzard swept over Northern Michigan, paralyzing communication lines and traffic of all kinds.

BELIEVE YOUNG WOMAN MURDERED

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, March 16.—Reports of medical examiners who performed an autopsy today on the body of Miss Dorothy Keenan, artist's model, found dead in her West 51st street apartment yesterday with an empty chloroform bottle on the floor, virtually proved the police theory that the young woman was murdered and robbed of her jewels.

A chemical analysis of the brain showed it to be saturated with the anesthetic and it was also found in the lungs. Medical Examiner Norris said the chloroform had been inhaled. Bruises were found on the face and neck indicating that the person administered the chloroform had met resistance. Investigators said they hoped to obtain valuable information from two men, known only as "Marshall" and "Wilson," who had called at the young woman's apartment frequently.

PROSPERITY IS EVIDENCED BY TAX PAYMENTS

Receipts Increase Despite Lowering of Tax Rate

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, March 16.—Evidence of prosperity almost nationwide was given in the last income and profits tax payments to the government, treasury officials declared tonight basing their statement on figures which, altho incomplete, support their earlier estimate of receipts of $400,000,000 between March 1 and 15.

One of the reasons given for the view that business conditions improved thruout last year and are continuing on the upgrade was that altho the general level of federal taxes rates has been lowered as compared with the rates upon which last year's payments were based, treasury figures indicate the aggregate amount of taxes collected during the first half of March this year will far exceed the collections for the same period last year, when they totalled about $336,000,000.

Reports to the treasury tonight showed that this amount has been exceeded probably by $50,000,000.

Income and profit-taxes paid to the treasury in March 1922, amounted to $293,000,000 and that figure probably accepted as properly representing the quarterly tax payment since only a negligible percentage of the payments for the quarter are made in advance of March first.

For the present month however there is every indication, according to those who watch the government's income that the total would be greater altho none would hazard a guess as to the extent.

Should the total for the month only equal the amount received in March last year, officials of the treasury maintained there still remained concrete proof of better times. Reverting to the difference in rates, they insisted there could be no misinterpretation of the barometric readings.

SUGGEST NATIONAL RAILWAY CENTENNIAL

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, March 16.—A national railway centennial commemorating the 100th anniversary of American railroads was suggested by the American railway engineering association in a resolution adopted at its 24th annual convention which ended here today. The first railroad in the United States was completed in 1827 and ran from the granite quarries near Quincy, Mass., to the Neponset river a distance of three miles. Shortly after the Mauch Chunk railroad was constructed to haul coal from mines near Carbondale nine miles to the Lehigh river. Both used horses as motive power.

The first railroad designed for general transportation business was the Baltimore & Ohio, the first rail being laid on this line on July 4, 1828.

WITNESSES LINK FOSTER DIRECTLY WITH CONVENTION

Testify They Saw Him at Gathering in Sand Dunes

(By The Associated Press) ST. JOSEPH, Mich., March 16.—William Z. Foster, charged with violating the state law against criminal syndicalism thru attending the communist convention held in the dunes near here last August, was linked directly with that meeting today when two state witnesses testified they saw him there.

Foster was not present when the convention was raided August 22 by a sheriff's posse and federal agents, but was arrested later in Chicago.

Jacob H. Spolansky, a department of justice agent from Chicago testified he saw Foster at the meeting on Sunday, August 20, when Spolansky and Edward Shanahan another federal agent had sat on a nearby dune and watched the meeting.

The entire day was spent by the state developing the story of the raid and identifying some of the hundreds of papers and documents seized when the raiders dug up two barrels of hidden evidence.

An apparent disagreement between Foster and Frank P. Walsh, his chief of counsel on the one hand and several of Foster's fellow defendants who are awaiting trial on the other was defied today by all concerned altho the others issued a signed statement that apparently repudiated the line of defense indicated in Mr. Walsh's opening statement yesterday.

Despite the apparent inconsistency of the two, Charles E. Ruthenberg, whose name was signed to the statement, Foster and Mr. Walsh all joined in telling The Associated Press that they were working together in "closest harmony" as Mr. Ruthenberg expressed it.

The executive committee statement took exception to newspaper reports regarding the depositions taken by Mr. Walsh at Chicago prior to the trial which reports said the defense would try to prove that the convention was planned by agents of the Bureau Detective Agency and that the delegates were tricked into following the detectives lead.

"Nothing of the sort happened at Bridgman Michigan," the defense will not concede anything of the kind.

Mr. Walsh in his opening statement yesterday made no mention of the agent provocateur charges brought out in the Chicago depositions, altho a week was spent there in questioning Albert Balabanow, a confessed spy to that end.

ECONOMY MUST BE PRACTICED BY POSTOFFICES

Postmaster General New So Notifies All Postmasters

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, March 16.—Postmasters thruout the country were notified today by Postmaster General New that the strictest economy commensurate with public convenience must be practiced during the next few months to avoid a postoffice deficit for the current fiscal year. The notice sent the postmasters, the department announced was in line with the curtailment of overtime and extra service made necessary for the remainder of the present fiscal year as a result of deficiency in funds.

Calling attention that congress is not in session and that no further appropriations will be available before June 30, the end of the fiscal year the postmaster general said:

"The constantly rising volume of mail in all sections of the country has gone beyond the expectations of the department as well as the director of the budget and the congress, so that the appropriations available during this period are already reduced to a point where it is evident that economies must be practiced. It is the desire that these economies shall be made in such wise as to occasion the least possible inconvenience to the public."

"It should be understood," Mr. New declared, "that this effort, which must be made between now and June 30, is not a part of any policy to save money at the expense of the service or men. It is simply and solely an emergency; we are caught by the unexpected growth of the business which, by the way, should be a cause for rejoicing as it is an unmistakable sign of national prosperity."

Assessing that the emergency is a temporary one only and one that "may occur in any great business enterprise, Mr. New said that "on July 1st the appropriation for next year becomes available and we will then be able to extend and perfect the service in many important ways and to discontinue this extraordinary campaign of economy."

(By The Associated Press) MIAMI, Fla., March 16.—President Harding will conclude his stay at Miami Beach tomorrow without having taken part in any conferences, transacted any important official business and without having deviated in any way from the three "R's" of his Florida vacation program, rest, relaxation and recreation.

Several of those who indicated they would like to confer with the president were seen by Secretary Christian, while others, including William Jennings Bryan, have realized that the great desire of Mr. Harding during his stay in Florida is to obtain a needed rest.

The Night Church was founded in August 1904 and later incorporated as the Midnight Mission. The church now is under the auspices of the Chicago Church Federation. Receipts during 1922 were $4,811.27 and expenditures were $5,116.78, a large portion of this going for relief work in Chicago.

GOOD ROAD MEETING FAVORS BOND ISSUE

DECATUR, Ill., March 16.—More than 700 delegates representing 78 Central Illinois communities, went on record here this afternoon as favoring the proposed $100,000,000 bond issue for the completion of the state hard road system and directed that the legislature be memorialized to this effect.

The action was taken following a "heart-to-heart" talk by Governor Small and Frank T. Sheets, superintendent of highway construction. Governor Small took a few sharp thrusts at journalistic critics of the proposed issue in the course of his address.

Assessing that the emergency is a temporary one only and one that "may occur in any great business enterprise, Mr. New said that "on July 1st the appropriation for next year becomes available and we will then be able to extend and perfect the service in many important ways and to discontinue this extraordinary campaign of economy."

PROFESSOR HOLMES DISPLAYS COURAGE LACKS DISCRETION

Hear What He Has to Say About Present Day Women

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Ill., March 16.—Women are weakening and cheapening themselves by indulging in masculine pursuits, Dr. Arthur Holmes, professor of physiology at the University of Pennsylvania and former president of the Drake University, Des Moines Iowa, said in a speech here today. He expressed himself today as absolutely opposed as an educator to anything in which women appeared as an imitator including boxing and basketball.

"You hear a great deal about the emancipation of woman nowadays," said Dr. Holmes. "I for one, am for it, indeed, I wish she would emancipate herself from a lot of her foolish notions. Particularly do I long for the day when she will be 'free' from her present obsession to imitate man in everything and return to her occupation of being feminine, the sphere where she belongs and where she can have all the liberty she pleases."

However, if women must fight let them use the original weapons which were the birthright of Mother Eve instead of longing to practice with men's firearms and boxing gloves. They are dangerous enough and can do a great deal more damage by shooting glances out of their eyes than playing with long range rifles. Women want to be original and by all means let them be so. They are not original in making absurd attempts to do the things that men do.

Will Proceed with Prosecution of Masked Mob Outrages

Governor John M. Parker when reached by telephone at Baton Rouge declined to have anything to say concerning the report of the grand jury or future action contemplated by the state's legal forces.

Some of the King "Tut" styles seem to have faded out even before they were well started. Such is the life of a fad.

The Illinois house seems to have been a unit on at least one subject—that of paying out the $30,000,000 remaining in the bond fund for hard road construction. The vote was 90 to 0.

Income tax figures from Chicago give pertinent proof of the improvement in business conditions there during the past year. It is said that the revenue office records show an increase of 70 per cent in the number of persons paying income tax on salaries of $5,000 or more this year by comparison with the record of a year ago.

A special senate committee has been appointed for the purpose of considering the conditions which confront the short haul railroads and auto freight lines that have demoralized the business of railroads or traction lines. The public has been invited to a hearing next Tuesday when the subject of discussion will have special relation to the C. P. & St. L. Senator Searcy of this district is one member of the committee which will perform a real service if the hearings result in the formation of a definite plan that will help meet some of these difficult transportation conditions.

Senator Borah, it is said, proposes to visit Russia and thus gain some additional first hand information with reference to the operation of the soviet government.

ment, for which he has greater admiration than is true of most Americans. Some other Americans whose sympathies have been very strongly with the present leaders in Russia, after acquainting themselves with the actual facts have returned to the U. S. with their ideas entirely changed. We give Senator Borah credit for sincerity and believe that if he does find conditions not as he has pictured them that he will acknowledge the fact and change his course in the senate, where he has consistently advocated recognition of the soviet government.

"CAT CAME BACK"

(NEA)
The birds that build their nests near your house this spring probably will be the same ones that camped near you last year. So claims H. Knight Horsfield in his new book "Sidelights on Birds." Patriotism or the instinct of seeking old homes year after year is highly developed in birds, "the very fields and woods which constitute home for them being resought year after year."

How do they find their way back? Horsfield writes that the strange way-finding power in migratory birds is leading up to the idea that there exists in birds an occult power which may be classed as a food-finding sense, separate from and additional to the five senses possessed by people and animals.

Some of us, who are considered "queer," merely have a sixth or psychic sense. Birds are very human, Horsfield comments. He thinks the bird that makes them return to former homes is their "passionate attachment for their native lands—their true home—in which the most fascinating period of their lives is spent."

Horsfield also claims that certain bird families have distinct "senses of the rights of property." Sometimes they fight and drive out invaders of what they consider their exclusive territory. With rooks it is clear that a "beet belt of trees is marked out as the property of a particular colony." In other words, a fence.

All of us have recognized, in "a's and dogs, this instinct which brings birds back to their former homes. As the old saying goes: "The cat came back."

But the cat will not come back unless it has affection for its old home or kittens that need its care according to Prof. F. H. Herriken, of Western Reserve University. "The cat, says Herriken, returns home by the power of orientation, a sense of direction. This power of orientation is a keen sense of muscular feeling, far keener than that possessed by the human body. By it, a cat knows instantly in which direction home lies, thru the feeling of its muscles. It is sense of direction in its most acute form."

A dog owned by Frank Farrow recently was sold and sent by express to his home in Chicago.

The highways stretch across the land

From there to here, from here to there

Are cross-ways leading everywhere

They make you sort of want to know

Where do the little cross-roads go?

The highways show upon the maps

They pass thru cities and thru states

The little roads—they may perhaps

Lead to a mansion's splendid gates

Or to a cottage snug and low

Where do the little cross-roads go?

The stream of traffic passes by

Few are the cars that ever turn

To follow where the byways lie

Yet had I time I'd like to learn

Whether they wander, to and fro

Where do the little cross-roads go?

To camps in forest places wild

To tiny hamlets 'mid the trees

To spots where fortune never smiled

To myriads of goals like these:

There roads may turn and twist

—heigho.

Where do the little cross-roads go?

Fellowship of Prayer

Daily Lenten Bible reading and meditation prepared for Commission on Evangelism of Federal Council of Churches.

SATURDAY Fellowship Thru Faith

"Have faith in God," Mark 11:22.

Read Mark 11:20-23.

"Faith is the stone upon which all other stones are to rest."

MEDITATION: Our prayer of faith will be answered if we are in right relations with God and with others. The current of Good Will which flows from God to His children will be blocked if we have unforgiving hearts one for another. Do I have "ought" against anyone?"

HYMN: My faith looks up to thee, Thou Lamb of Calvary, Savior divine.

Now hear me while I pray, Take all my guilt away, O let me from this day Be wholly thine.

PRAYER: Lord Jesus Christ, who hast commanded us not to return evil for evil, but to pray for those who hate us; enable us by thy blessed example to offer true prayer for those who have wrought us harm. If in anything we have given offense, teach us to confess our fault, that a way of reconciliation may be found. Deliver them and us from hatred; and may the peace of God rule in our hearts for evermore. Amen.

REVIVAL SERMON BY DR. E. L. PLETCHER

Delivered Strong Discourses on "The Holy Spirit" Music Featured Services Friday Evening.

The Congregational church furnished the ushers for the Union Evangelistic service at Grace Church Friday night. They were L. H. Ward, L. S. Doane, H. M. Capps, J. A. Palmer and A. D. Fairbank.

Two musical features of the program were a cornet solo, "The Holy City," by Mr. Willard Rubendahl and a cornet duet, "Resignation," by Mr. Rubendahl and Prof. Lovelace.

An impromptu solo was given at the request of leader by Eldred Bolan, the small son of the Rev. Bolan. He sang the chorus of Beulah Land from his place in the audience.

Dr. T. W. Smith of Westminster church was chairman of the evening. The Rev. C. D. Robertson led in prayer. The Rev. M. L. Pontius read the scriptures and the Rev. Olenschlager pronounced the benediction.

Dr. E. L. Pletcher, superintendent of Jacksonville district of the M. E. church delivered the sermon, on the subject, "The Holy Spirit." He related a boyish dream in which he imagined his father was dead. When his father entered the room, quieted his sobs and assured him of his presence and protection. "A similar nightmare of 'Darkness and doubt,' came, the speaker said, to the early church at the death of their Lord, but it was dispelled by the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, whom He sent to be His representative. He commended the relation of the spirit to the Christian to that of Jean Val Jean toward Corset in Victor Hugo's famous novel, "The Holy Spirit," he continued, "is our advocate to defend us in every trial."

The doctrine of the inner life is not native to the Anglo-Saxon thought. We emphasize the tangible things of life to the disadvantage if not the exclusion of the spiritual. The oriental mind is better adapted for these finer spiritual conceptions. We play on but a few of the heart chords and make inadequate music.

Finest Things in Life.

The finest things in life, love, faith and loyalty are invisible and intangible. A soul cannot be fed on stocks, bonds, lands and business enterprises. They are a mockery. It calls for the fellowship with God. As the compass needle answers to the magnetic pole, so our soul turns intuitively to God. A ship loaded with "flakes and spices" tells of a land beyond the seas. Ships of God are freighted with spiritual blessings which signify a land beyond the range of human vision.

The mission of the spirit is to dispel the loneliness of the Christian. He was with Daniel in the den of lions, with Stephen in his martyrdom, with Paul in the Mammesine prison, with Jesus in Gethsemane.

The preacher invited a lonely, troubled and discouraged and sin-burdened people, in a touching appeal to admit the Holy Spirit into their lives.

There will be no union service Saturday night. On Sunday morning each church will hold its own service, but a great mass meeting is planned for Sunday evening and if Grace church will not accommodate the people an overflow meeting will be arranged.

AUTO SHOW COMES TO THE FINAL DAY

Crowded Aisles Have Been the Rule Notwithstanding Unfavorable Weather Conditions

The Jacksonville automobile show is entering upon the final day. The weather has been exceedingly unfavorable for such an event. Taking that fact into account it is surprising that the Auto Inn has been crowded each night and there have been many visitors during the day time hours. The attendance has certainly given proof of the interest there is in automobiles and also the displays which are found in the merchants' exposition.

The members of the Jacksonville Automotive association are appreciative of the interest shown by the public and are hoping that all attendance records will be broken today.

Certainly every person who has any thought of buying a car in 1923 should visit the show and take advantage of this opportunity for quickly and easily comparing styles, qualities and prices.

ELMER FITZSIMMONS IS SERIOUSLY ILL.

Elmer Fitzsimmons, who has been a patient at Passavant hospital for several days past, ill with pneumonia, was considered as in a very critical condition last night. Mr. Fitzsimmons' sister, Mrs. Eugene Porter, who is in California, was notified by wire of her brother's serious condition.

Charles Fitzsimmons is now in North Carolina on business and thus far it has not been possible to reach him by wire.

Edward M. Kitter is here from Springfield for a few days' visit with friends.

MEMORIAL WINDOWS PLANNED FOR CHURCH

The New Salem Lutheran Structure May Have Three Picture Windows—Attractive Designs Considered—Dedication May Be Held in June

Plans for three memorial windows in the new Salem Lutheran church were discussed yesterday at a meeting of the building committee of the church. The committee hopes to sell that many windows to subscribers, and probable designs are being considered. A series of four pictures depicting the Parable of the Sower is an attractive design. Another series depicts the Life of Christ, and still another represent important scenes in his earthly career.

The committee at its meeting Friday determined on the kind of art glass and the general designs for the windows. The seating contract for the building has already been let. The structure is now ready for the placing of the steel girders to support the roof. This will be done as soon as possible, as the contractor is endeavoring to get other work completed at the same time and there may be some delay in the church building job.

It is expected to dedicate the new church plant sometime in June, tho this is by no means definite. Nothing has been done as yet toward the dedication program.

DEATHS

Delaney

Thomas Delaney, formerly of this city, died at 4 o'clock Friday morning at St. John's hospital in Springfield, following a brief illness with pneumonia. The remains were brought to this city Friday evening in charge of John M. Carroll and taken to the Carroll funeral parlors.

Mr. Delaney resided in this city for a number of years. He was for some time a trainer of racing strings at the old fair ground track. He is survived by two brothers, John Delaney of this city, and Lawrence of California, and one sister, Miss Lizzie Delaney of California.

Members of the family will arrive in the city today and funeral arrangements will be announced later.

McQuiston

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Harmon have gone to Saltburg, Pa., where they were called by the sudden death of the latter's sister, Miss McQuiston. She had been ill but a short time and news of her death came as a shock, as her condition was not thought to be serious.

Deaton

David L. Deaton, a former resident of the Franklin community, died recently at his home in Montgomery county at the age of 85. He was for many years a member of the Franklin Christian church.

MAKE FURTHER PLANS FOR CATHOLIC JUBILEE

Committee Chairmen Named by John W. Clary—Need Felt for Huge Assembly Hall

Preparations are going forward for the jubilee of the Church of Our Savior and the celebration honoring Rev. Dean Formaz, John W. Clary, general chairman, has named the chairmen for the various committees that are necessary in completing the arrangements. At an early date Mr. Clary will hold a conference with the chairman, at which time the personnel of each committee will be announced.

It is recognized that one of the difficulties the committee will meet in is arranging for a gathering of this size. The membership of the Church of Our Savior is now at the 3,000 mark and the committee must make provision for an assemblage which will include not only the greater part of the membership, but numerous others from the citizenship of Jacksonville—to say nothing of visiting delegations.

The last general celebration of a similar kind was held twenty years ago when the membership of the church was but a little more than half the number now belonging. However, Mr. Clary and his assistants feel sure that the plan can be worked out whereby no one need be excluded from the proposed gathering.

The chairman of the several committees named are as follows:

Invitation and entertainment—James McGinnis.

Transportation and reception—Tom Dufner.

Printing—James T. Flynn.

Banquet—Edward A. Brennan.

Decorations—Joseph Mallen.

Reservations—Louis A. Cain.

Music—Len J. Flood.

Assembly—J. N. Kennedy.

History and statistics—D. Scott Sweeney.

Publicity—J. J. Kelly.

PLEASING RECITAL IS GIVEN FRIDAY NIGHT

Miss Ruth Melba Armstrong and Miss Eunice Northrup Are Stars at Song and Harp Program at Conservatory Hall

In the Recital Hall of the Conservatory there was given last evening an unusually interesting program of song, harp and piano. Miss Ruth Melba Armstrong, of the faculty of the Conservatory, gave her annual song recital, assisted by Miss Eunice Northrup, harp soloist, and Miss Inez Pires, also of the faculty, as piano accompanist.

Musical Jacksonville has heard Miss Armstrong frequently in the past five years, and has watched with interest her progress as a vocal student and, more recently, as an instructor in voice. Her improvement has been steady and rapid, and she proved to us last evening that she has really arrived at a definite goal. She has undoubtedly achieved much that many students of voice struggle for in vain, and may consider her future with certainty of artistic success. Gifted with a voice of unusual power and sonority, hers was the task of training this rather unwieldy instrument so that variety of dynamics might be brought under complete control, and this object she has attained with praiseworthy thoroughness.

The program opened with the ever-lovely "Lullaby Carol," with its sustained Italian phrases and its demand for good mezza-voice and breath control, a demand which she met with entire success, revealing a mastery of the soft upper tones that was not hers a few years ago. In the Hady number also there was a call for long sentences delivered with smooth, unforced tone, and the aria was given with a simplicity and breadth only to be attained by arduous study. In the "Oh Sleep," with its even greater demand on the breath, there was a commendable repose of interpretation and well-sustained climax. The aria from "Nad-seh-da," more modern in color, revealed more variety of vocal art than any selection on the program, ranging as it did from low tones to high, from pianissimo to fortissimo and containing the expression of different emotions.

Miss Armstrong was at her best in this lovely number. She responded to consistent applause with Kramer's "Last Hour."

The harp solos by Miss Northrup made a delightful break in the evening of song and piano. Jacksonville had the pleasure of listening to this young lady as a harpist last year at one of the Conservatory concerts, and were pleased at that time with her charming performance. She has improved in both technique and interpretive power, and the lovely picture she makes seated at her beautiful instrument adds to the pleasure she gives by playing.

Her accompaniment to one of Miss Armstrong's songs was sympathetically done and most enthusiastically received by the audience—so much so, indeed, that it had to be repeated.

Of the remaining numbers on Miss Armstrong's well varied program it is difficult to choose the best, for they were all well done. The Hindoo Song of Bengberg and the "Inter Nod" of McFadyen made a deep appeal, while the "I Am Thy Hary," mentioned above, met with the most ardent response. It was, however, in the final song, with its difficult swirling accompaniment and frequent change of key, that the singer was most severely tested. That she came thru the task triumphantly, reaching a thrilling climax at the end, speaks well for her musicianship and her conscientious study as well as her thorough training. As a recall offering she sang "The Sandman" by Charlie Dunlap.

The accompaniments, many of them extremely difficult, were done unobtrusively but with decision and sympathy by Miss Pires whose faithful support meant much in the artistic success of the evening.

FINANCIAL REPORT OF TOURNAMENT ISSUED

Principal W. L. Kaiser of the high school has announced the financial results of the district tournament. Total receipts were $2,005, of which Jacksonville's share was $885.50. This covered the expenses of putting on the tournament, including advertising, new basket balls, etc.

Expenses of visiting teams amounted to $707.69, and their bonus to $174.12. Of this amount Chandlerville received the greater sum, as the team traveled the greatest number of miles and stayed thru the entire tournament.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE:

The Interpretation of Truth

BY

Frank H. Leonard, C. S. B.

At the high school auditorium Friday night, Frank H. Leonard, C. S. B., member of the board of trustees of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, delivered a lecture on Christian Science. A large audience was present to hear the lecture. The speaker, who was introduced by Miss Mary Price, said in part:

"Whenever I hear or think of that quotation from John, 'And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free,' I likewise think of the question asked of Jesus, 'What is truth?' And perhaps the most interesting thing, so far as I am concerned, in the entire quotation, is the fact that Jesus did not answer that question. He practically said: 'If in view of everything that you have known to be done in Judea under my ministry you are still asking the question, 'What is truth?' then no words would ever convey one single item of information on that point."

Now, Truth is one Truth. In my recent lecture tour in Europe, a very eminent divine in the Lutheran Church remarked that it was dangerous to say God is Truth, because, he said, there are so many truths that it would be a question as to which one God is. That was a theological opinion, but it was not Christian. All the human opinions on the face of the earth as to what constitutes Truth may be wrong. There are millions of human opinions, but when we begin to limit Truth, when we begin to say that there is this truth and that truth and the other truth, we are getting away from the Bible fact, which tells us that there is just one Truth, and that this Truth is God, the infinite One.

One of the questions that has been asked very often is why we should assume that this revelation came through a woman of whom no one had ever heard up to that time, rather than through some of the men or women who had consecrated years of their lives to the study of the Bible. Well, really, we cannot answer that question. Only God can answer that. But we can say that Jesus said: "I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Mrs. Eddy assuredly conformed to what a babe means in her loyalty to the teachings of the Bible, in taking them as being absolutely true.

When other children are hearing the little fairy stories and things of that sort to which we all have loved to listen, Mrs. Eddy was hearing from her mother the history of things recorded in the Bible, as stories of true events. She clung to them as she grew up; then when she had reached maturity she met with an accident which the doctors said would result fatally. All of her friends accepted and believed this, and her minister stopped to pray with her in the morning, believing, as they all did, that she would not be on earth to be prayed with at the termination of the morning service. After he had done his kindly loving work for her, she asked those with whom she was staying to give her the Bible and to leave her alone with God. They did as she requested, and when the minister stopped again later to see if he could be of any assistance, Mrs. Eddy herself opened the door to him, and stood before him for the first time since her girlhood, perfectly well, normal and natural in every particular.

The Bible tells us of many happenings of that kind. Yes, and there are many events of that sort about which we know that have happened outside of Bible times. But what is the difference between those and Mrs. Eddy's case? This—the others all accepted their healing to be a manifestation of a special dispensation on the part of God, and the next time they had a pain they took a pill. They thought their healing was a special occasion, and that a special privilege had been given to them to be specially made well by the Word of God. Mrs. Eddy did not accept that. There is no such thing as a special dispensation, because if we have what Jesus said, we know that if we believe on him, we shall all do the work he did. He intended therefore to say that it was not a special dispensation which had enabled him to do these things, but that it was a universal gift to men when they were willing to follow God in his footsteps as he had taught them to do. Mrs. Eddy did not accept her healing as a special dispensation, for she knew she had been made well through the activity of the law of God, and that she had a right to her birthright, the knowledge of God and Jesus Christ whom He had sent, which would give her dominion over the earth and the fullness thereof, and take from her every sense of fear that God might be absent, or that there was another power to which she might be subject, therefore that God might be omnipotent, omniscient, and omnipresent. Then she became a student night and day, week in and week out, month in and month out, year in and year out. She studied. And what did she study? The Bible. It was the only book she had to study. No commentaries would help her, nothing but a determined and consecrated effort to know the truth of being in its spiritual import until finally she began to get hold of the light of God in its eternal activity, so that she was able to heal others even as she had been healed, and thus she learned to know God even better. She found herself able to tell others how to heal as she had been healed, and then her revelation fulfilled itself when it came to her so clearly that she was able to put it down in words that you and I can grasp and understand and comprehend, so that as we take what she said and go to our Bible with it, we, too, find the spirit of the Word of God which enables us to worship Him in spirit and in truth, and so fulfill His law.

So we know by results that the revelation came to Mrs. Eddy and through her to the whole world.

Mrs. Eddy has unfolded to us a marvelous knowledge of God in the synonyms which she has given in "Science and Health with a Key to the Scriptures" for the word "God." Many people have thought that they did not believe in God, but every one believes in God when he knows what He is; and so these synonyms which Mrs. Eddy has given to the world would eventually have been sufficient to have saved the entire world if she had never written another thing.

Now Mrs. Eddy, in using these synonyms, does not limit or consent to the truth of the statement that there are two kinds of love, for instance; one that may turn into envy, murder, and hatred; and the other, the love which Jesus Christ showed when he was enabled to say of those who were attempting to destroy him: "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do."

Mrs. Eddy teaches us that God is Life. The Bible teaches us that God is Life. It says so in so many words—Life, that is without beginning or without ending; Life, which manifests itself to be the eternal activity and creator; Life, that we are all longing and looking for.

I have spoken to you of the teaching that God and Truth are one, and we do know that nothing on earth can be accomplished if it be not for the realization of Truth, consequently we all do believe in God.

Then Mrs. Eddy teaches us that God and Principle are one. A person when he hears that statement very often will say: "Well, now, that is one of the objections that I have to some of the teachings of Christian Science. It takes my God away from me, and it gives me nothing but an ephemeral theory that I am to take and believe in."

Mrs. Eddy teaches us that God and Principle are one, and, as I say, that seems to be an abstract statement, but it is not when we understand it. What is it that always brings to a successful issue, if properly used, every problem? It is primary law, the rule of progression? Is that the problem or the solution? No, it is the principle of mathematics which underlies all mathematical problems, of which the superstructure of all harmonious action is builded, and the result is a correct answer. It is in this method and manner that Mrs. Eddy uses the statement that God and Principle are one. She means that God is the foundation, the liberal foundation of all that is true, and that on this foundation we build the superstructure wherein God, man, and the universe are coincident and in agreement, all of them manifesting eternal Life, Truth, and Love, which constitute God.

Mrs. Eddy also teaches us that God and Mind are one. That has been a controverted point, perhaps more so than any other of Mrs. Eddy's teachings. I don't see why. There isn't anything new in that statement or teaching. She has not propounded anything new for our acceptance in teaching that God and Mind are one.

What does John say in opening his gospel? He says this: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." On a simple analysis let us see where that statement leads us, so far as the foundation is concerned.

What is the word? The word is the expression that accompanies or precedes thought. Thought is the activity of Mind. Therefore, because this is true, Mrs. Eddy's statement would be equally correct if it were used to say that in the beginning was Mind, and Mind was with God, and Mind was God—and then we instantly see why it is implied of us that we should let that Mind be in us "which was also in Christ Jesus," and we see what our Master meant when he said that it was not he that did these wonderful works but that it was the Father working in him who accomplished them. And, incidentally, therefore, in further corroboration of the correctness of the teaching, let us revert to the first chapter of Genesis, wherein we read: "God said: 'Let there be light;' and there was light, and it was so;" and we know that the spoken word is the expression of the thought which goes with it, and thought is the activity of Mind.

Therefore, it is not an abnormal, it is not an abstract statement to say that God is Mind and when we come to know that God is the Mind of Christ, then we know that our God is omnipotent, omniscient, and omnipresent; that He is the same yesterday, today, and forever, and without variableness or shadow of turning.

We shall find that the more we turn to know God as Christian Science teaches God to be, the more loving we shall be, the more consciousness of life we shall have, the more Truth we shall discern, and as every step presents itself unto us, the more we shall become conscious of the Principle of right thinking, so that we can make no mistake, but shall go on with the light which never loses a case which came to it for healing; and the more we cling to that, the more we have the Christ-mind which enables us to do for ourselves and for our brethren in this world the healing from every discord that seems to afflict us.

"Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven."

WHITE HALL VETERAN CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Henry H. Bogges Celebrates Seventy-Ninth Birthday Anniversary—Other News from White Hall.

WHITE HALL, March 16. — The 79th birthday anniversary of Henry Bogges was observed Thursday at a dinner gathering of veterans of the Civil War in the Bogges home on Carrollton street. The day was rainy, and only five of the seventeen members of the local G. A. R. post responded, these being, besides Bogges, Dr. A. W. Foreman, who will celebrate his 83rd anniversary on the 25th inst., Rev. J. T. Green, age 76; Seth N. Griswold, 80; W. C. Baker, 74; G. R. Adams, 78. A. O. Vosseller, whose physical condition precluded his presence, was sent a dinner from the well-laden tables. The combined age of those present was 470 years, averaging 78.3 years. Mrs. Bogges was assisted by her two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Frank Bogges, and Mrs. J. A. Bogges, Mr. and Mrs. Bogges are both in excellent health. Another guest was R. B. Pearce, who was authorized to confer with Rollins L. Scott, county superintendent of schools with reference to the dedication of the group of Revolutionary headstones at White Hall that practically represents the full history of such graves in Greene county.

Went to Springfield
A party of White Hall citizens, four in number, went to Springfield Wednesday to inquire into the hard road situation as it affects this territory. The party consisted of H. O. Tunison, C. A. Ruckel, Mark and Guy Lowenstein, and they found that there is a powerful awakening in the matter of securing hard roads all over the state that may leave in the background the communities that are not thoroughly alive and intensely interested in the improvement of things that makes road improvement essential to the progress of any community. The party was confronted with a delegation of 63 that was endeavoring to secure a road from Carrollville west to the river, a very feasible and desirable proposition from the standpoint of serving Calhoun county. The largeness of the Carrollton delegation evidenced the unanimity of action there in getting roads. The White Hall party called upon Governor Small, State Engineer Sheets and Treasurer Nelson, and learned that every effort will be made to complete the White Hall-Roadhouse road this year. The state officials regard the C. and A. subway as a matter only requiring the request of the authorities, but that the Burlington subway may require legal action and consequent delay. The state authorities also made it plain that if the drainage engineer can be induced to take proper action, the state engineering force will get on the ground at any time and lay out the work through Apple creek bottom, enabling the fill to be made this

On Face and Arms. Lost Sleep. Cuticura Heals.

"When I was about thirteen years of age my face and arms broke out with pimples. They were hard, large, and red, and itched and scalded over. I was miserable because of the itching and burning, and my clothing aggravated the breaking out on my arms. My face was disfigured and I lost much sleep.

"I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and they afforded relief in a couple of days. I continued using them and in about three weeks was completely healed." (Signed) Esther Ritter, Box 25, Conderay, Wis., Aug. 8, 1922.

DRAWINGS MADE FOR DAVIS CUP CONTESTS

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 16.—Seventeen nations—four in the American zone and thirteen in the European zone—today were drawn for competition for the Davis cup international tennis trophy held by the United States.

Representatives of 12 of the 17 challenged nations witnessed the draw which was in charge of Julian S. Myrick, of New York, chairman of the Davis cup committee of the United States lawn tennis association and George W. Wightman, of Boston, vice-president of the association. In the American zone, Canada was drawn against Japan and Hawaii against Australia in the first round.

Argentina drew a bye in the upper half of the draw for the European zone and thus will play in the second round against the winner of the first round match between Czechoslovakia and Switzerland. The other two matches in the upper half are: Indiana vs. Ireland and France vs. Denmark.

The six remaining European competitors were drawn in the lower half first round matches bringing Spain against Rumania, Italy and Holland both drew byes and were paired in the second round.

SUZANNE LENGLEN OVERWHELMS MALLORY

(By The Associated Press)
NICE, March 16.—No one could be found tonight to challenge the right of Suzanne Lenglen to the supreme title of the woman's tennis world. After the overwhelming defeat she administered to the American champion, Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, 6-0, 6-0, in the semi-finals of the Nice tournament today, all were agreed that there was no woman in sight likely to dethrone the French star for some time to come.

Mlle Lenglen was magnanimous in victory and Mrs. Mallory dignified and courageous in defeat and when they shook hands with apparent cordiality after the match both were given hearty applause by the great crowd of spectators.

Mrs. Mallory refused to talk to newspapermen but Suzanne said she was overjoyed at her success, not because of the victory over Mrs. Mallory personally but because it gave her the chance to get back at the American sporting writers, by whom she says she has been ill-treated in 1921 after her defeat to Mrs. Mallory at Forest Hills.

"Perhaps they will see the error of their ways now," she added, "and realize how unfair they have been to me, who had to go on a strange court 48 hours after landing from the boat. I am sure that Mrs. Mallory can play a better game than she did today. She was bothered by the light and other conditions to which she is unaccustomed. I was ill myself and depressed and could not play my best game in America, but that is ancient history. I bear no ill will toward any one."

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

There is the joyful cry of thousands who have found relief from constipation. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time discoverer, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for bile constipation and torpid livers. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not irritate the bowels, but a healing, soothing laxative.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not griping is the "keynote" of these sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to function normally. They never force them into action.

MADE ADDRESS ON PAVING PROJECTS

Hugh Skidmore of Chicago Paving Laboratory Talked to Rotarians—Club Prepares for Trip to Danville.

At the Friday luncheon of the Rotary club at the Pacific hotel Hugh W. Skidmore, consulting engineer for the Chicago Paving Laboratory was the principal speaker. Mr. Skidmore gave an outline of the principal types of street paving, and was followed by a number of questions and answers.

Subsequent to his formal address Mr. Skidmore explained that the function of a paving laboratory is to furnish unprejudiced expert information relative to the quality of materials that are being used in pavement work.

Rotarians spent part of their session in preparation for the convention to be held at Danville he coming week. The committee in charge of the delegation includes Dr. H. A. Chapin, A. R. Taylor and Dr. Charles M. Hopper.

The purpose is to have a special sleeper attached to the Washington train at 9:15 next Wednesday night, arriving in Danville Thursday morning. The sleeper will be kept in Danville for use that night and the return will be timed to reach Jacksonville Friday morning at 6 o'clock.

Twenty to twenty five members of the club are expected to make the trip. The official delegates to the convention are Dr. A. H. Dole, M. L. Pontius and E. E. Crabtree, with H. M. Capps, C. C. Smith and R. Y. Rowe as the alternates.

Guests of the day included W. W. Yager, Indianapolis; O. R. Jenks, Aurora; C. K. Arison, Chicago; W. J. Smith, Chicago; C. N. Corover, E. M. Henderson and P. J. White, Jacksonville.

After Mr. Skidmore's address an opportunity was given for questions, and Dr. A. L. Adams asked what effect heavy traffic would have on the West College avenue pavement. Mr. Skidmore indicated that a greater amount of damage would be caused by the frequency of traffic than by the weight of any individual truck.

The speaker in answer to another question said that some very satisfactory jobs of resurfacing brick pavements with asphalt have been done in other cities and mention was made of some Decatur streets.

Good Paving Points. "The home town in its outward aspect, usually reflects the mental attitude of its people, whether it be lethargic or progressive toward improvements," the speaker began. "It is true that much real worth may come from the development of latent ability to develop need only be aroused in order to become a realization."

"The best type of paving must be selected from a consideration of a number of points," he stated.

1. Ultimate cost, which includes not only first cost but also maintenance cost over the period of its normal life. Under this head will also fall durability.

2. As an aid to sanitation; is the pavement water tight, and does it readily lend itself to the rapid diversion of storm water and street liquids to the sewers? It is easily kept clean, or does it absorb or otherwise retain dirt?

3. Traction resistance. This is also a cost item; not of the pavement itself but it materially concerns the cost of operating the vehicles which use the pavement.

4. Attractiveness. Is the pavement pleasing in appearance? Is it in harmony or in contrast with the other surroundings? What are its riding qualities? Is it smooth, does it seem to cushion the jar, or does it seem to increase vibration by its rigidity?

5. Value as a foundation, which may be resurfaced at low cost when its utility as a wearing surface has disappeared.

"To come to cases," Mr. Skidmore said, "Jacksonville has some very fine streets; some which are fair and with a little well spent maintenance expense can be kept in service for some time to come; some which are not paved at all, but should be; and last, several which at nominal cost now can be resurfaced so that they will offer just as good value as the new pavements built last summer."

Old brick and macadam pavements can be covered with a new asphalt wearing surface at moderate cost. This type of construction produces excellent results if properly done.

There is nothing new about the process, and Decatur, Olney, Riverside, Joliet, Dubuque and many neighboring cities have had pavements resurfaced he explained.

"The old pavements at some time in their life become so rough and unsightly that the cost of maintaining them in even passable condition over a period of years will equal or exceed the cost of resurfacing, spread over the same period. Even though in old pavement may be maintained at considerable expense and made to serve the purpose for a few years, it does not compare in smoothness of surface, appearance, cleanliness and low traction resistance with the resurfaced pavement. Such maintenance of old pavements, which must be paid from general funds, may work an injustice upon the property owners on well paved streets, since they must repeatedly pay their share of expensive maintenance of the other fellow's worn out pavement," he pointed out.

"Pavements like most other things which are in constant use, must be kept in serviceable condition in order to avoid an operating loss. When maintaining serviceability becomes too expensive, renewal or replacement must be resorted to as an economic measure."

"Your city has done much in the way of public improvements. There is much that remains to be done, and from the standpoint of good business the present administration, which enjoys an enviable reputation for doing things, should be encouraged to do all that can be consistently and economically done," he concluded.

Dr. H. A. Chapin made his report for the Danville Convention committee, after the speaker had finished. A number of guests were present, W. W. Yager, of Indianapolis, O. R. Jenks, of Aurora, C. K. Arison of Chicago, W. J. Smith of Chicago, R. E. M. Henderson, J. N. Conover of Jacksonville.

Demonstration of Love

By MYRA CURTIS LANE

Grandfather had farmed his land for fifty years. He had been frugal and saved enough to retire on. Every Thanksgiving all the family would assemble at his house.

There was John, the eldest; Millie, who had married the stockbroker—who generally stayed in town—and Edwin, with his daughter Barbara, Grandfather's favorite.

Barbara and Grandfather always took long walks together when she came to the farm, and they were just such friends and confidants as grandfather and granddaughter often are.

Barbara had had a love affair. Nobody was supposed to mention it to her, because it had turned out unhappily, but Grandfather soon found out all about it as they strolled along the road toward the woods.

"Oh, don't let's go this way," protested Barbara. "I don't want to see that cross old Mrs. Hayes you're so friendly with."

"Cross, my dear?"

"Well, I don't like the old woman and that nasty house of hers," said Barbara pettishly.

"I'm sure if you knew her you would like her," said Grandfather. "However, each to his taste, my dear. Tell me about John."

"Oh, Grandfather, I'm so unhappy. It's all over for good now, and I shall never, never love again. He behaved so abominably."

"What did he do, Barbara, dear?"

"He—he was carrying on an affair with that Lily Prentiss I told you about all the time I thought he cared for me," sobbed Barbara.

"But what excuse did he have to offer?"

"He—he said he was trying to break it off and hadn't the courage. What an excuse! Of course, I'll never have anything more to do with him, though he's begged me to let him come back and live with me. I could never trust him again. And the worst of it is that I can never love anybody again. I'm through with love forever. Do you know I am twenty-five, Grandfather?"

"Not such a patriarch, my dear."

"Oh, but when you've been through an experience like that it seems you, Grandfather. Everybody knows you can't love after twenty-five."

Grandfather said nothing, and they walked through the leafless woods till they came to Mrs. Hayes' new cottage.

"Are we going in?" asked Barbara.

"I—I've just got to give Mrs. Hayes a prescription she wanted for her chickens," Grandfather answered.

Barbara remembered how some body had told her that Grandfather and Mrs. Hayes had been very fond of each other when they were young. Something had come between them.

The withered old woman opened the door. It was impossible to see how anybody could ever have loved Mrs. Hayes; how she could ever have been beautiful. She had thin, white, straggling locks under her cap, she was bent and angular, her voice was a creak and she was the crossiest thing Barbara had ever seen.

"You know my granddaughter Barbara."

Mrs. Hayes mumbled something. What a contrast was Grandfather! Fine, tall and rugged in spite of his two and seventy years.

"I've just come about your sick chickens, Letty," said Grandfather. "Better let me look at them."

The old woman bobbed off with him. Barbara began to follow them, hesitated and stopped at the back door. She saw Grandfather give Mr. Hayes his arm. They went off, passing among the chicken houses. They disappeared, reappeared.

Barbara gave a little gasp. She saw Grandfather stoop and kiss the old woman. She saw Mrs. Hayes' face upturned to his. Then, with his arm about her waist, Grandfather led her back toward the house. He did not remove his arm until he was quite near Barbara. They walked back through the leafless woods. If Grandfather had not been able to answer him. Something was swelling in her throat, something had touched her so deeply. They were half way home when Grandfather broke the silence.

"You must act as you think best, of course, dear. But you and John are young, and when people are young they are apt to be a little harsh in their judgments. Afterward, sometimes, they regret them."

Grandfather sighed, and there followed a long silence. They were quite near the house when Barbara said:

"Grandfather, I'm going to write to John this evening."

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary Boss Withrow whose death occurred at the home of her son Samuel Withrow at Bristow, Okla. was born at Versailles Ill. March 16, 1853. Her death came as a shock to her daughter Mrs. L. L. Ticknor 470 South Main St. as she had received a letter from her mother only a few days before giving plans for her return to this city where she had been making her home with Mrs. Ticknor.

The Boss family were pioneers in Brown county where they were active in the early development. It was there that she grew to womanhood and was married to Phillip B. Withrow on the 28th of April 1870. To this union six children were born, four of whom survive. Mrs. L. L. Ticknor, with whom she lived since the death of her husband last June. Samuel of Bristow Okla. Homer J. of Doniphan Mo. and Mrs. G. R. Barnes of New Orleans La.

Mrs. Withrow was a fine cheerful christian woman, who early in life became a follower of Christ and entered the Union Baptist church in the childhood home.

She filled her mission well as wife, mother and friend where ever she lived. Her faith in her Savior was beautiful in her age with infirmities and sorrows.

Two brothers survive: John of this city and Andrew of Versailles and two sisters Mrs. Julia Fredrickson of St. Francis Kan. and Mrs. Florence Ranson of Beardstown. These with the children named above mourn the loss of a loving mother and sister.

NEW HOTEL PROJECT TO TAKE DEFINITE FORM

Enterprise Will Mean Greater Business Development for Jacksonville—Citizens Are Soon to Unite in Plans to Make Modern Hotel Building An Early Possibility

For months past there has been discussion of a new hotel for Jacksonville, and very soon the project is to take definite form. A Chamber of Commerce committee was appointed a year ago to outline a plan looking toward the securing of a new hotel and conferences have been held from time to time. Now it is proposed to take early and definite action which will result in the raising of the necessary funds and the organization of a hotel company. Next Tuesday night at the Pacific hotel a group of business men will gather to work out organization details. The expectation is that action will be taken at that meeting which will result in an immediate campaign for stock subscriptions.

If the plans used in many cities are followed here, bonds to about half of the amount of money expended in the enterprise will be sold and the remainder of the funds provided thru stock sales. It is estimated that to erect a thoroughly modern hotel will cost approximately $400,000. The business men who have discussed the subject up to this time are of one mind in the opinion that when a new hotel is erected in Jacksonville that it should be one to which the words "thoroughly modern" can be truthfully applied.

It is recognized that a good hotel is the finest kind of an advertisement for a city. Generally speaking, the hotel business thru the country has been excellent during the past five or six years and it seems to be constantly on the upgrade. People travel more than used to be the case and the coming of the automobile and the improved road systems tend to increase travel.

Jacksonville is on the Pike's Peak Ocean to Ocean highway which means that thousands of automobile tourists travel this way, and the number is certain to increase as the road system of Illinois improves. There are other important routes also that pass thru this city, and travel over them is increasing steadily.

NEW BUILDING TO RISE ON SOUTH SIDE

R. T. Cassell Lets Contract to Vasconcellos & Sons for Modern Store Building.

The contract was let yesterday by R. T. Cassell to Vasconcellos & Sons for a new building on the south side of the public square. Mr. Cassell several weeks since purchased from Mrs. Lucinda Kirby the building formerly occupied by the Princess Candy Co. and badly damaged by fire several months since. Work on the new building will begin Monday and construction work will be pushed along just as rapidly as weather conditions permit.

Mr. Cassell has approved plans that provide for a substantial and well finished structure. The front will be done in buff colored brick and the display windows will be of the best quality plate glass, lighted above with prism glass. Four cash windows in metal casing will afford light for the upper stories.

The main entrance will be tiled and the ceiling of the ground floor will be of sufficient height to make a gallery or mezzanine floor possible. All the interior finish will be in hard wood and the plans call for a complete and modern business building.

DOUBLE VICTORY IS AGAIN WON BY I. C.

Illinois Debaters Show Monmouth Under by Two to One Decisions Friday Evening—Four Debates in Less Than Week Won by Hill Teams.

Another double victory crowned the efforts of the Illinois college debating teams Friday evening in their annual world battle with the Monmouth college debaters. Illinois won by two to one decisions of the judges both here and at Monmouth. The Illinois negative team debated the Monmouth affirmative in this city, while the Illinois affirmative team went to Monmouth.

Judges of the debate here were Prof. Guild of Wesleyan university, President Jenks of Aurora college, and Rev. Rogers of Macomb. At Monmouth the judges were Rev. O'Connor of Streator, Supt. Munch of the Monmouth schools, and Prof. Senton, debating coach in the Galesburg high school.

The Illinois college debaters were the same as those participating in the Illinois-Augustana debate last Tuesday evening. This is the first year Illinois college teams have had the services of a debating coach, and the results prove the wisdom of the new ruling. Winning four debates in one week, all by two to one decisions, shows decisively that Illinois has the goods. The question for debate was, "Resolved, that strikes in public utilities and coal mines should be prohibited by federal law."

Juniors and Seniors of High School Gather at Christian Church for Supper and Program in Keeping With St. Patrick's Day—Dance follows at Elks Home.

About two hundred and fifty members of the Junior and Senior classes of the Jacksonville high school assembled at Central Christian church Friday evening for the annual banquet. The decorations and program were in keeping with St. Patrick's Day, and the entire affair was spoken of as one of the most brilliant social events of the season.

The banquet menu was as follows: Tipperary Cocktail, Baked "Hin" Murphys' a la Kilarney, Giblet Gravy, Sinn Fein Dressing, Emerald Isle Salad, Olives, Wafers, Limerick Ice, Blarney Stone, Nuts and Coffee. Dunlap's orchestra furnished music during the supper hour.

After the banquet the program was given as follows:
Junior President's Greeting—Floyd Sanders.
Senior President's Response—George Wetzel.
Talk by Principal W. L. Kaiser of the high school.
Irish Dance—Miss Jean Terhune.
Group of Irish Songs—Mrs. A. R. Gregory.

At the table of honor were seated the following Miss Margaret Curtis, George Wetzel, Miss Mary Bayless, Miss Emma Mae Leonard, W. L. Kaiser, Mrs. W. D. Kaiser, Miss Irene Merrill, Miss Dorothy Blimling, Earl Tilton.

When the banquet was concluded, a large number of those present went to the Elks Home, where Earl Tilton and Floyd Sanders were sponsors of a ball for the members of the two high school classes. Dancing continued from 8 to 12 o'clock, and about seventy-five couples were on the floor.

The young people had the run of the entire club quarters of the Elks. All parts of the building were brilliantly lighted and the ball room presented an attractive appearance. Dunlap's orchestra furnished the music.

The committee from the Junior class in charge of the prom are as follows: Social committee, Margaret Curtis, chairman; Theodore Wetzel, Sam Osborne, Maurice Bradley and Margaret Piepenbrink; Program committee, Georgia Terhune, chairman; Earl Tilton, William Kitter; Financial committee, Robert Reid, chairman; Jack Dodsworth and Vida Sloan; Decorating committee, Lev Arnold, chairman; Mike Simms, Lucille Harber, Tom Backthorpe and Margaret Struck.

COHEN FUNERAL IS HELD AT OAK RIDGE

Funeral services for Jacob Cohen were held at 11:30 o'clock Friday morning at the Oak Ridge cemetery in Springfield. Eight members of B'nai B'rith Temple of that city acted as pallbearers, and the services were conducted by Rabbi Landman, head of the Temple.

The remains were taken to Springfield Friday morning over the Wabash. Bearers from the residence here were Henry Frisch, J. Herman, Myer Saasky, Herman and Henry Shanken and Louis L. Horen. Interment was made in Oak Ridge cemetery.

GREGORY HOME IS SAVED FROM FIRE

What might have been a disastrous fire was prevented by the timely arrival of the fire department Friday morning at the residence of F. L. Gregory, 525 South East street. A fire rising from an old-fashioned fire place that had been walled up with wood, caught fire from above.

The flames came down into the fireplace and ignited a large quantity of soot, which burned fiercely. Fortunately the firemen arrived in time to extinguish the flames before the wood walling up to the opening had caught fire. Comparatively small damage was done.

AID SOCIETY HAS SUCCESSFUL BOOTH

The ladies who have had charge of the Christian Church Passavant Aid society booth at Auto show this week have been very successful, and have netted quite a goodly sum for the isolation hospital fund. Many friends of the hospital have donated pies, cakes, salads, eggs, butter, macaroni and baked beans and other food articles.

Numerous business houses have also been very generous in donations toward this worthy cause. Among persons or firms who have assisted during the week are the following: Andrews Lumber Co., lumber for the booth; Andre and Andre, furnishings for booth; People's Furniture Co., cupboard; Railway and Light Co., gas stove; Grace church, dishes and silver; Cully Coffee Co., coffee; Federal, Ideal and New System bakeries, supplies; Leak, Dorwart and Widmayer meat markets, meat; Snyder Ice Co., ice; J. W. Merriam, ice cream; John R. Midden-dorf, all the milk used and also some butter.

The general chairman for the week has been Mrs. G. B. Andre, and she has filled the position with great ability. Mrs. E. W. Brown is the president of the society but was unable to give much attention to the booth during the week because of serious illness in her home. Various members of the society have contributed liberally of their time in making a success of the undertaking.

James Menn of Springfield, division freight agent on the Alton, was transacting business in the city Friday.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE AT FRANKLIN HOME

Mrs. Willa Harney Is Guest of Honor at Birthday Dinner Party.

Mrs. Willa Harney of Franklin was given a very pleasant surprise Friday, the affair being in honor of her birthday anniversary. An elaborate dinner was served at the home of her son, W. G. Harney, in Franklin.

The guests were members of the Royal Women's Bible class of the Franklin Christian church, of which class Mrs. Harney is a member. The birthday dinner was planned and prepared by Mrs. W. G. Harney, and there were sixteen guests present to enjoy the splendid menu.

The afternoon hours were very pleasantly spent with music and conversation and when the guests departed for their homes it was with the hope that Mrs. Harney may enjoy many more such anniversaries.

These boots can be had in all sizes—in red or black, at the small sum of
